Bible Doctrines and Studies

Cardinal Doctrines of the New Testament Church (What We Believe as Missionary Baptists) Author: Joseph F. Roberts, ThD, PhD

Most of the time when you ask people what they believe, they will willingly tell you. Then if you ask them why they believe it, most of them cannot tell you. This book/ebook will not only give the basic Bible Doctrines, but it will also show the simplicity of each doctrine.

How to Be Author: Joseph F. Roberts, ThD, PhD

“How To” and then six different things were added, Humble, Joyful, Kind, Meek, Obedient and Pure. The Bible teaches that we are to be all of those, but sometimes we are not sure how we are to be humble, joyful, etc. That is the purpose of this e-book\book, that we will know how to be humble, how to be joyful, how to be kind, how to be meek, how to be obedient, and finally, how to be pure.

The Birth of Christ (A Detailed Look at the Revealing of Jesus' Birth) Author: Joseph F. Roberts, ThD, PhD

I suppose that Christmas is observed by the majority of the non-Muslim world. What I want to do is to give you the facts about the season that we call Christmas. We know for a fact that the birth of Christ was not observed until much later in human history. I want to look at the origin of Christmas and how it came down to us today and why. I do not do this to spoil your celebration of the season nor to try to convince you of anything against your will. I simply want to give you the facts from a Biblical and historical reference.

Why Bad Things Happen to Good People Author: Joseph F. Roberts, ThD, PhD

One of the oldest questions to come to the mind of mankind is "Why do bad things happen to good people?" The Book of Job is believed to be the oldest book of the Bible. This question is raised in that book. Job's friends seemed to be of the opinion that bad things do not happen to good people; therefore, they proceeded to accuse Job of doing very bad things. They told Job that the things that he was experiencing were the judgment of God because of his sins. But, of course those of us who have read the Book of Job know they were wrong as are a majority of people today.

Hebrews, God's Plan to Spiritual Maturity Author: Pastor John Powers

The Book of Hebrews has been called "The Fifth Gospel". The four Gospels describe Christ's ministry on earth, but this book describes His ministry in Heaven at God's right hand. The book of Hebrews exalts the Person and Work of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. Our eyes are fixed upon Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our faith (Hebrews 12:2). He is set before us "crowned with glory and honor" in the heavens (Hebrews 2:9). When we realize all that we have in and through Him, we have no desire for anyone else or anything else.

The Lord's Prayer (A Study of John 17) Author: Joseph F. Roberts, ThD, PhD

Within the pages of the book/ebook is the evidence that the account that our Lord gave in Matthew's Gospel that is commonly called "The Lord's Prayer" is actually "The Model Prayer." The elements of the Model Prayer are given in the first chapter. The Model Prayer is then re-examined in the final chapter to compare just how much applied and what did not apply to Jesus' prayer in John 17, which is the real Lord's Prayer.

A Sin Unto Death (A Study of I John 5:16, 17) Author: John Teague, ThD

We will be examining the interpretations and explanations that abound regarding I John 5:16-17. Every imaginable sin has likely been named through the years as the sin unto death. Usually, the foulest of sin is selected as that sin unto death. Which sin is the sin unto death? Is it murder, incest, rape, sodomy, child abuse or something like idolatry? Is it one of what is commonly called "The Seven Deadly Sins?" Is it the sin of non-productivity, hypocrisy, scoffing at the things of God, carnality, defilement of the body, sexual immorality, or ingratitude? Is it blasphemy against God in general, Jesus Christ or the Holy Ghost in particular? This study will endeavor to at least answer some of these questions.

The Steps of Jesus (The Passover Series) Author: Joseph F. Roberts, Thd, PhD

The resurrection of Jesus is one of the most controversial Bible subjects there is. The teaching that Jesus was crucified on Friday and arose early on Sunday morning is probably the prevalent teaching there is. This book/ebook will show that Jesus did not die on the cross on Friday and arose on Sunday morning. It will show that "Palm Sunday" is really not an event that took place on Sunday morning as most believe.

The Church Covenant (An In-Depth Study)

Author: John Teague, ThD Editor: Joseph F. Roberts, ThD, PhD

The church covenant is important for several reasons. It spells out clearly the agreement made by the membership of the church to one another and to Jesus Christ. It sets forth a well-defined body of belief. It is an agreement of choice, binding the membership of the church to a policy and program which, when followed, will strengthen and build up the spiritual body of the church as well as set forth a system of doctrine which will benefit each believer in matters relating to both the flesh and the spirit. The Church Covenant is a compact document that reflects basic principles in the Word of God. This study will be an in-depth analysis of the agreement to the church and the church member's responsibility to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. It will be paragraph upon paragraph, sentence upon sentence, phrase upon phrase, and word upon word.

Jude The Unplanned Book Author: John Teague, ThD Editor: Joseph F. Roberts, ThD, PhD

This epistle is addressed to all believers in the gospel. Its design appears to be to guard believers against the false teachers who had begun to creep into the Christian church, and to scatter dangerous tenets, by attempting to lower all Christianity into a merely nominal belief and outward profession of the gospel. Having thus denied the obligations of person holiness, they taught their disciples to live in sinful courses, at the same time flattering them with the hope of eternal life. The vile character of these seducers is shown, and their sentence is denounced, and the epistle concludes with warnings, admonitions, and counsels to believers. The apostle exhorts steadfastness in the faith.

The Relation of Baptism to Salvation Author: J. R. Graves

Jesus accounts no one as His friend, in fact, that no one loves Him, unless he obeys whatsoever things Christ commands him. Now Christian immersion stands first and foremost among the commands Christ enjoined upon all who profess to love Him—the first and representation of all future obedience—since, embraced in its profession, is the pledge of unqualified and continued obedience in all the requirements of Christ.

The Prayers of Jesus Author: Joseph F. Roberts, ThD, PhD

Prayer is the most powerful weapon the child of God has in his God-given arsenal of Christian armor. Prayer is the polish to the armor of God found in Ephesians 6:18. Without prayer, the remainder of the weapons become useless. Without prayer, the soldier in the Lord's army becomes careless and sets himself up as an easy prey for Satan.

Landmarkism vs. Interdenominationalism Author: Curtis Pugh

Some time ago I ran across an article written by George Zeller, the Pastor of the Middletown Bible Church located in Middletown, Connecticut. The article was entitled An Analysis of the Doctrinal Errors of Landmarkism. In reading the article I was astounded at the blatant heresy that Mr. Zeller wrote in trying to prove "Landmarkism" was a false doctrine. It was an attack on the writing of Dr. J. R. Graves' book Old Landmarkism: What is it? I found that Curtis Pugh had an excellent answer to the heresy purported by George Zeller. I felt that it would be good to present a detailed study in defense of Bible Doctrine concerning the New Testament Church as presented by Mr. Pugh.

In Search of the Universal Invisible Church Author: Pastor Milburn Cockrell

Throughout all Protestant Christendom there prevails the teaching that the word church has a twofold meaning in the New Testament. They say at times it is used in the local sense and at other times in the sense of a universal, invisible church consisting of all believers. This work by Pastor Cockrell will prove the universal, invisible church doctrine to be a false one.

Why I am a Baptist Author: Clarence Larkin

In my examination of the subject I found it necessary to read a great many tracts, pamphlets, and books, none of which covered completely the whole ground. Feeling the need of a comprehensive little work to place in the hands of young converts, and those desiring to know the distinctive principles of the Baptists, I prepared the following volume. I claim for it no originality. It is simply a compilation of facts, and the arguments of others, culled from numerous sources after careful and voluminous reading. But as he who could obtain credit for constructing a new edifice largely from old material, with the addition of a little new, must see to it that the old material is not too conspicuous; and as I remember that the Class of persons for whom this is written care more to see the finished building than the method, manner, and material of its construction, I have arranged the facts and arguments culled, so that their source and authorship is not evident. At the same time I have acknowledged my indebtedness to all who may recognize their own offspring in the garb of a foreigner.

The Facts About Backsliding Author: John Scott Roesch

When a mule is happy where it is, it's hard pressed to get it to move. Even with a bit in its mouth, the harder we try to move it, the harder it fights back, pulling back from us as we try to move it forward. This action is called backsliding and is a good example of how we get when we resist God's commands and directions.

Church History

Church History Through the Trail of Blood Author: Joseph F. Roberts, ThD, PhD

Church History is usually a neglected subject in a church's ministry. That is incredibly sad because without an understanding of Church History, there cannot be an appreciation of its present situation. Therefore, it is especially important to learn Church History. It will generate a much greater appreciation of the Lord's Church.

A History of American Christianity Author: Leonard Woolsey Bacon

Bacon introduced his History of American Christianity at the very end of the 19th century. The book appeared just after the violence and controversy of the American Civil War, and just as that of racial segregation and the World Wars began to brew. In spite of this, Bacon's History highlights the glories and triumphs of Christianity's development in the United States. In particular, he focuses on how all kinds of Christians from many different countries have met and come together in America. He looks forward to a future in which these Christians can live united in faith. While some critique Bacon's History for its perhaps excessive patriotism, others appreciate Bacon's ecumenical vision. In any case, the book stands in a rather unique place in American history. By virtue of this, it tells the story of American Christianity in a way particularly refreshing for an American era characterized by the political polarization of the church.

The story of Whitefield's times is one that should often be told. Without it, no body is qualified to form an opinion either as to the man or his acts. Conduct that in one kind of times may seem rash, extravagant, and indiscreet, in another may be wise, prudent, and even absolutely necessary.

Jerusalem, the City of Herod and Saladin Authors: Walter Berant and Edward Henry Palmer

Very few words are needed to introduce this volume. It is intended to give a history of the city of Jerusalem from about the year 30 to the present time. This period includes the siege and capture by Titus, the last revolts of the Jews, the Christian occupation of three hundred years, the Mohammedan conquest, the building by the Mohammedans of the Dome of the Rock, the Crusades, the Christian kingdom, the reconquest of the city, and a long period of Mohammedan occupation, during which no event has happened except the yearly flocking of pilgrims to the Church of the Sepulchre, and an occasional quarrel among the monks

Miscellaneous

A Confederate Girl's Diary Author: Sarah Morgan Dawson

It is perhaps due to a chance conversation, held some seventeen years ago in New York, that this Diary of the Civil War was saved from destruction. A Philadelphian had been talking with my mother of North and South, and had alluded to the engagement between the Essex and the Arkansas, on the Mississippi, as a brilliant victory for the Federal navy. My mother protested, at once; said that she and her sister Miriam, and several friends, had been witnesses, from the levee, to the fact that the Confederates had fired and abandoned their own ship when the machinery broke down, after two shots had been exchanged: the Federals, cautiously turning the point, had then captured but a smoking hulk. The Philadelphian gravely corrected her; history, it appeared, had consecrated, on the strength of an official report, the version more agreeable to Northern pride.

The Philadelphia Confession, 1742

The earliest known reference by an association to a confession occurred in 1724, when the Philadelphia Association, in reply to a query concerning the Sabbath, referred to “the Confession of Faith, set forth by the elders and brethren met in London, 1689, and owned by us.” Whether the Confession had been formally adopted is not indicated, but that it was the accepted standard of doctrine is evident. Formal adoption certainly is shown by September 25, 1742, for on that date the Association is in session at Philadelphia ordered a printing of a new edition. The churches paid for the printing job, which was done by Benjamin Franklin in 1743.

US Constitution for Dummies Author: Dr. Michael Arnheim

"We the people" are the opening words of the U.S. Constitution, and it is fitting that this book is written for "We the people." Both the Constitution itself, and this book explaining it, were meant for everybody, for all of the American people. This book can be read on several different levels. If you just want to understand the basics of the Constitution, this book offers you an easy, enjoyable, and at times humorous way to do so. But the book also offers a much deeper insight into the Constitution and all the controversies

The New Hampshire Confession of Faith

This Confession was drawn up by the Rev. John Newton Brown, D. D., of New Hampshire (b. 1803, d. 1868), about 1833, and has been adopted by the New Hampshire Convention, and widely accepted by Baptists, especially in the Northern and Western States, as a clear and concise statement of their faith, in harmony with the doctrines of older confessions, but expressed in milder form. The text is taken from the Baptist Church Manual, published by the American Baptist Publication Society, Philadelphia.
